

Ephesians 6:18-20

18 praying at all times in the Spirit, with all prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert with all perseverance, making supplication for all the saints, 19 and also for me, that words may be given to me in opening my mouth boldly to proclaim the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains, that I may declare it boldly, as I ought to speak.”

Prayer in Warfare

- The background of the slide features a dramatic, high-contrast scene. Three soldiers are shown in silhouette, walking away from the viewer across a dark, uneven terrain. The sky behind them is a deep, fiery red, filled with wisps of white smoke or steam, suggesting a battlefield at night or during a firestorm. The overall mood is somber and intense.
1. The weapons of warfare and prayer are integrally connected.
 2. You CANNOT withstand attacks from the enemy without prayer
 3. Prayer seems more difficult when the scope of our view of prayer is limited.
 4. The best teaching for prayer is PRAYER.

Jude 1:20

“But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith and praying in the Holy Spirit,”

Philippians 4:6

-“do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.”

1 Thessalonians 5:17

“pray without ceasing”

Matthew 26:42

“Watch and pray that you may not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

prayer in warfare...continued

5. We must learn how to pray the way God wants to RECEIVE prayer!
6. Prayer is not just directional it's dimensional.
7. Prayer rises and falls on our concept of God.
8. Prayer is not for ministry it IS ministry
9. Prayer must be a reflex.

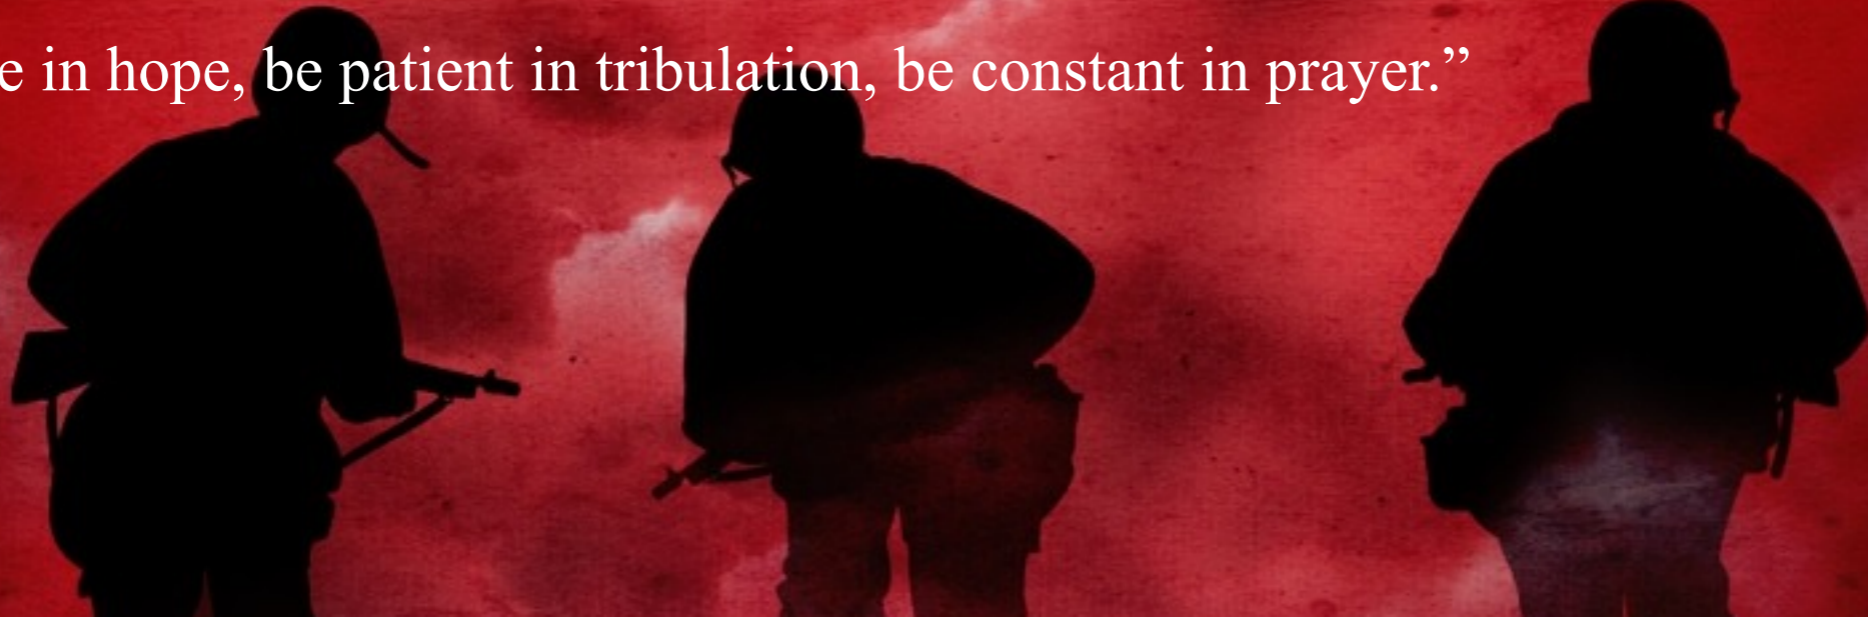

Romans 8:26

“Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness. For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words.”

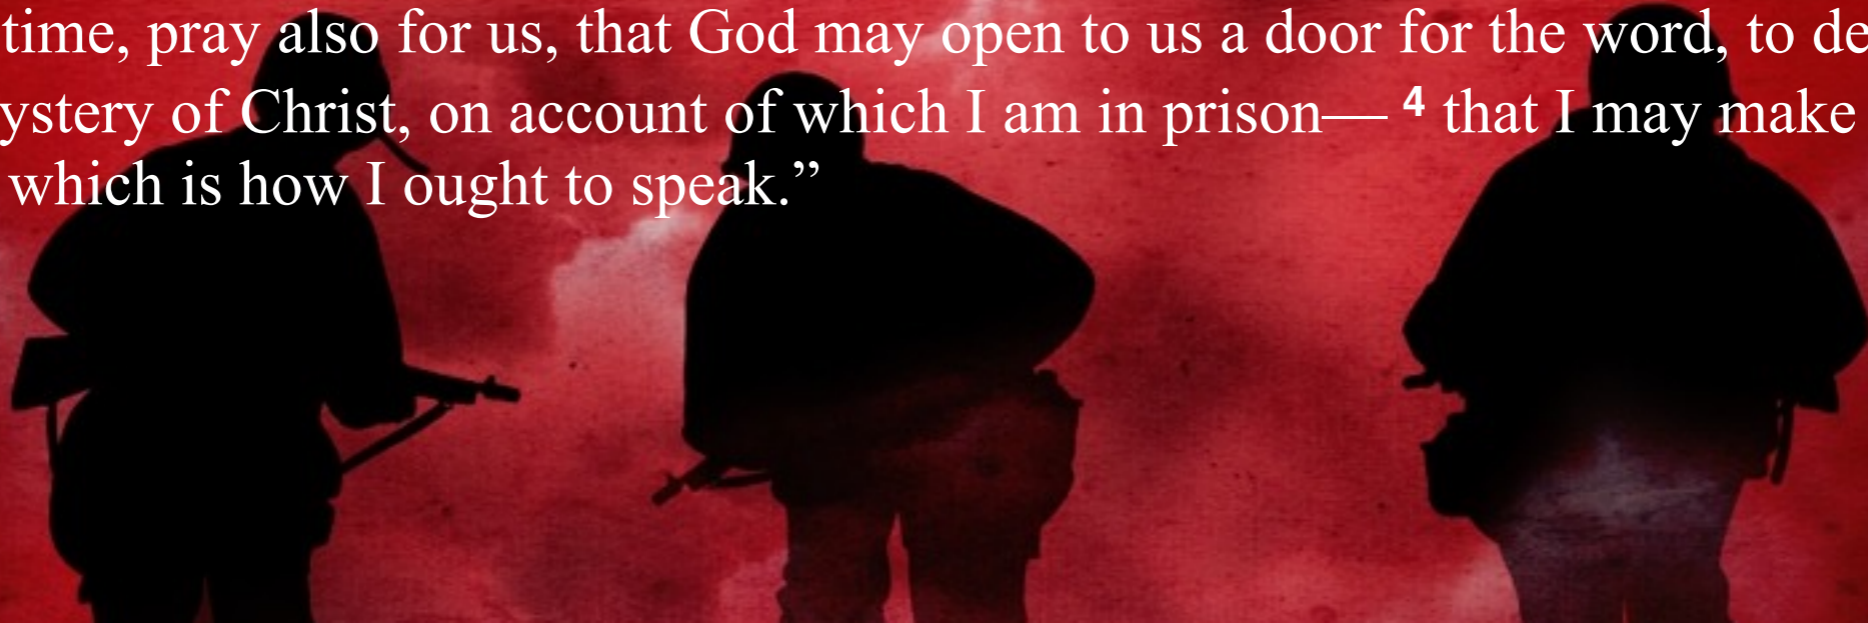

Romans 12:12

-“Rejoice in hope, be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer.”

Colossians 4:2-4

–“Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving. At the same time, pray also for us, that God may open to us a door for the word, to declare the mystery of Christ, on account of which I am in prison—⁴ that I may make it clear, which is how I ought to speak.”

1 Timothy 2:1

-“First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for all people,”
